

Several locations along creek have moderate overhanging woody vegetation, providing some fish and invertebrate habitat. Add more overhanging and large woody debris for habitat

Retrofit with water quality treatment where feasible or as opportunities arise

Control rough fish migrating from Palmer Lake

Several water quality ponds are being constructed as part of the I-94 3rd Lane project to treat currently untreated runoff

2004 Twin Cities Metro Area
0.3 Meter Resolution Aerial Photography
US Geological Service

L:\Y 240\1240-33\apr\reach_1_ft_aerials

SHINGLE CREEK CORRIDOR STUDY

Reach 3 I94 to 69th

Wenck
Wenck Associates, Inc. 1800 Pioneer Creek Center
Environmental Engineers Maple Plain, MN 55359-0249

July 2005

Figure 4